World Mental Health Day

To raise awareness of World Mental Health Day in October, the children and staff are invited to take part in #helloyellow, by wearing something yellow for the day. Every class takes part in activities linked to building resilience which were produced by Young Minds, the organization behind the #helloyellow campaign.

Anti-Bullying Week

Every November we get involved in National Anti-Bullying Week. The whole of the school were invited to wear their odd socks at the beginning of the week to celebrate everyone being different, unique and special. During the week, every class takes part in activities linked to the chosen theme. This year, Class 5 led a community assembly to raise awareness about bullying and how we can help each other.
